

Press Statement issued by Shri KC Venugopal, General Secretary, AICC

New Delhi, December 18, 2019

AICC General Secretary Shri KC Venugopal today said that the Congress party would organize “Save India- Save Constitution” flag march at all State Capitals on December 28, 2019, its foundation day.

Congress President Smt. Sonia Gandhi would hoist the flag of INC at AICC Hdqrs. in New Delhi while all senior state leaders and Heads of Frontal Organizations would participate in the march at State Capitals, which would be organized under the aegis of respective Pradesh Congress Committees (PCCs).

The decision was taken in the meeting of AICC General Secretaries and Incharges held in AICC on December 16, 2019.

Shri Venugopal informed that series of flag march is being organized in continuation of the success and the momentum generated by the massive ‘Bharat Bachao Rally’ at New Delhi. The flag march are aimed at registering a strong protest against the anti-people policies of the Narendra Modi - Amit Shah led BJP government which has resulted in massive unemployment, economic slowdown, unprecedented price rise and atrocities against women.

Divisive policies of the BJP government like Citizenship Amendment Act and brutal police crackdown on protesting students and citizens will also be taken up, which are aimed at diverting the attention from the burning issues affecting the common people.
